

YASMIN CARRIM

Yasmin Carrim is an admitted attorney in the High Court of South Africa. She is currently serving as a full time Tribunal Member of the Competition Tribunal of South Africa. She also serves as a part-time member on the National Consumer Tribunal. She has previously served as Group Executive of Regulatory Affairs at MTN SA, and as a counselor on the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa. An attorney by profession, Ms Carrim was a director at the law firm Cheadle Thompson & Haysom before serving on ICASA. She completed her articles at law firm Webber Wentzel and served as a researcher to Justice O'Regan at the Constitutional Court. In her youth she was actively involved in community organisations, United Democratic Front and in the establishment of ANC branches (after its unbanning) in the Western Cape. She continued her activism by being a founding trustee of the Women's Legal Centre which conducts public interest litigation to advance women's rights. She is deeply committed to achieving social justice and to this end continues her public interest role by serving as a director on the board of the Soul City Health Institute.
