3. BACKGROUND

- 3.1 On 28 August 2000, Nedschroef entered into a written agreement of sale with Teamcor Limited (“Teamcor”), in terms of which the former bought the assets of National Bolts, the automotive fastener manufacturing division of the latter for a price of R11 Million. The agreement came into effect at close of business on 29 September 2000 and two other firms were also signatories to the agreement, being CBC Fasteners (Pty) Ltd ("CBC Fasteners") and Waco International Limited ("Waco International").

- 3.2 Waco International signed in its capacity as holding company of Teamcor, therefore committing itself as surety for Teamcor's obligations arising out of the agreement and CBC Fasteners as a beneficiary of, and party to the restraint obligations imposed in terms of the agreement.
- 3.3 On 10 October 2005, Nedschroef lodged a complaint with the Commission, alleging that the agreement of sale contained clauses which constituted restrictive horizontal practices as defined and prohibited by section 4(1)(a) alternatively section 4(1)(b) and/or restrictive vertical practices in contravention of section 5(1) of the Act.
- 3.4 The alleged restrictive clauses of the agreement (clauses 15 and 16) consisted of restraint undertakings by Teamcor (the seller), Nedschroef (the purchaser) and CBC Fasteners. In addition Nedschroef and CBC Fasteners (clause 17 to 19) recorded their intention to co-operate in regards to sourcing, tooling manufacture, heat treatment and cross sourcing, undertook not to entice or solicit each other employees for a period of 10 years and agreed to afford each other "best customer" status in respect of prices and terms of payment relating to those products purchased from each other.
- 3.5 The relevant clauses of the agreement are the following:
- 3.5.1 Clause 15

Clause 15 operates in favour of Nedschroef and it provides that:

"The seller (Teamcor) undertakes that for a period of ten (10) years from the effective date (the restraint period) it shall not directly or indirectly, at any place within the Republic of South Africa, Angola, Congo, Malawi, Mauritius, Mozambique, Swaziland, Namibia, Lesotho, Botswana, Seychelles, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe, whether for its own account or as a principal, agent, partner, representative, shareholder, member, consultant, adviser, financier or in any other like capacity whatsoever in relation to any person, and whether for its direct or indirect benefit or otherwise, and whether for a reward or otherwise, and whether formally or otherwise be interested or concerned in any business which manufactures and distributes those products listed or described in Annexure "F" to the agreement, provided that the foregoing provisions of this clause 15 shall not preclude or prevent the Avlock division of the seller with the consent of the purchaser (Nedschroef) to market and distribute those products listed in Annexure F upon such terms as may be agreed upon and shall not preclude the seller from retaining its shareholding in CBC Fasteners (Pty) Ltd".

3.5.2 Clause 16

(a) Clause 16.1 operates in favour of Teamcor and CBC Fasteners, where it provides that:

"The purchaser (Nedschroef) undertakes in favour of the seller (Teamcor) and CBC Fasteners (Pty) Limited that for a period of ten (10) years from the effective date (the restraint period) it shall not directly or indirectly, at any place within the Republic of South Africa, Angola, Congo, Malawi, Mauritius, Mozambique, Swaziland, Namibia, Lesotho, Botswana, Seychelles, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe, whether for its own account or as a principal, agent, partner, representative, shareholder, member, consultant, adviser, financier or in any other like capacity whatsoever in relation to any person, and whether for its direct or indirect benefit or otherwise, and whether for a reward or otherwise, and whether formally or otherwise be interested or concerned in any business which manufactures and/or distributes and/or imports any fasteners apart from those types of fasteners which are listed in Annexure "F" to the agreement".

- (b) Furthermore clause 16.3 confers benefits upon Avlock International in that it states that Nedschroef undertakes to sell and distribute all the Standard Hexagon Bolts referred to in Annexure F of the agreement which it may manufacture to Avlock International only, a division of Teamcor, or any other distributor as may be approved in writing by Teamcor.
- (c) Clause 16.4 confers benefits upon CBC Fasteners, as it provides that Nedschroef undertakes that it shall for a period of no less than ten (10) years from the effective date, purchase from CBC Fasteners its entire requirement of wheel nuts for the South African market at market price related prices.
- (d) Clause 16.5 provides that Nedschroef shall, for a period of 10 years, only manufacture for export, or if intended for customers within the countries listed in the agreement, exclusively for CBC Fasteners for distribution to such customers, the following products:
- 27 mm to 33 mm diameter range standard hexagon bolts
  - 16 mm to 24 mm diameter range standard hexagon bolts, which are longer than 200 mm
- (e) Clause 16.6 further permits Teamcor and CBC Fasteners to inspect Nedschroef's premises and its records relating to its customers and its works orders, in order to monitor compliance with the above-mentioned undertakings by the latter.

- (f) Clause 16.7 stipulated that by signing the agreement, CBC Fasteners accepted the benefits conferred upon it and in clause 16.8 it is recorded that the provisions of clause 16 shall be enforceable by either or both Teamcor and CBC Fasteners.

3.6 Besides filing the complaint, Nedschroef also brought an application for interim relief, in which the Competition Tribunal granted relief on 1 February 2006. In granting the interim relief the Competition Tribunal made the following order in terms of section 49(c) of the Competition Act:

"That the relief sought operates and/or remains in force until the earlier of-

- (i) a final determination of the applicant's complaint in terms of the Competition Act, ... that clause 16 of the aforesaid sale agreement constitutes a prohibited practice as contemplated in terms of section 4(1)(a) alternatively section 4(1)(b) of the Act and is declared void;"

4. COMMISSION'S INITIATION

4.1 As Nedschroef was a party to the agreement and therefore the dividing of the market, the Commission's Enforcement and Exemptions Division, upon receiving the complaint, advised Nedschroef's legal representative, that an application in terms of the Commission's Corporate Leniency Policy would have been more appropriate. This advice was however not followed.

4.2 As a result of negotiations between the parties subsequent to the Competition Tribunal granting interim relief, a settlement agreement was entered into and Nedschroef indicated to the Commission that it wanted to withdraw its complaint.

- 4.3 As the Commission was of the opinion that a prima facie case exists for the agreement between the parties to be viewed as a contravention of section 4(1)(b) of the Act, it was decided in terms of Rule 16(2) of the Rules for Conduct of Proceedings in the Competition Commission to continue with the investigation of this contravention as if the Commissioner initiated the complaint.
- 4.4 In addition, the Commissioner on 13 June 2006, in terms of section 49(B)(1) of the Act, initiated a complaint against Nedschroef as a party to the restrictive agreement for contravening section 4(1)(b) of the Act.

5. COMMISSION'S FINDINGS

- 5.1 The evidence in the Commission's possession suggests that all the essential elements for a successful prosecution under section 4(1)(b) of the Act are present, namely (i) an agreement, (ii) between parties in a horizontal relationship, which (iii) involves market division in that Nedschroef and CBC Fasteners would, for a period of 10 years, each be entitled to manufacture specific products; Nedschroef only the 29 products listed in Annexure F to the agreement of sale and CBC Fasteners all the general fastener products not listed in Annexure F, which would specifically include short lock bolts.
- 5.2 In terms of the agreement Nedschroef would further only supply its Standard Hexagon Bolts to Avlock International or directly to automotive manufacturers and Nedschroef, for a period not less than 10 years, would purchase from CBC Fasteners its entire requirement of wheel nuts for the South African market.

6. AGREEMENT CONCERNING CONDUCT OF THE RESPONDENT

The Commission and the Respondent agree that the Respondent's conduct constituted a contravention of section 4(1)(b) of the Act. The Respondent has already taken steps to bring to an end the prohibited practice, but the Commission and the Respondent agree that the Respondent shall:

- 6.1 not enforce any of the restrictive clauses of the agreement or require any of the parties to the agreement to abide by the aforesaid clauses.
- 6.2 refrain from engaging in the fixing of any trading conditions or division of markets in contravention of section 4(1)(b)(i), alternatively section 4(1)(b)(ii) of the Act.
- 6.3 provide copies of this consent order to each of its present directors and during the five-year period following the confirmation of the order provide a copy to any future director on his or her appointment and in each case draw the attention of the director to the content of the order.
- 6.4 institute, within twelve months from the date of this order, a compliance programme designed to ensure that employees are informed about Nedschroef's obligations under Competition Law and the existence and substance of this consent order.
- 6.5 submit its compliance programme to the Commission, which programme will include, but not be limited to, establishing a mechanism for employees to report any contraventions of the Act.

- 6.6 require its employees to comply with the substance of this consent order and take appropriate disciplinary action against any employee who fails to do so.

7. ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY

- 7.1 In terms of section 58(1)(a)(iii) of the Act read with section 59(1)(a), 59(2) and (3) of the Act, the Respondent agrees to pay an administrative penalty of R200 000.00 (two hundred thousand rand) in full and final resolution of all proceedings between the Commission and the Respondent under case number 2006Jun2345.
- 7.2 The above amount does not exceed 10% of the Respondent's annual turnover in and exports from the Republic during the preceding financial year. Details of the annual turnover of the Respondent during the preceding financial year will be filed with the Competition Tribunal under cover of Form CC7.
- 7.3 The administrative penalty will be paid not later than 30 (thirty) business days after the confirmation of this Agreement as a Consent Order by the Competition Tribunal.
- 7.4 The penalty amount is to be paid into the bank account of the Commission. The Commission's banking details are as follows:
