COMPETITION TRIBUNAL OF SOUTH AFRICA

Case no: LM189Jan21

Ultimo Properties (Pty) Ltd and JD Consumer Electronics and Appliances (Pty) Ltd (Primary Acquiring Firms) and
Part of the Rental Enterprises of Steinhoff Properties (Pty) Ltd and JD Group Property Holdings (Pty) Ltd and Tanzanite Treasure Trading 7 (Pty) Ltd and Showboat Trade and Invest 17 (Pty) Ltd and Copperzone 185 (Pty) Ltd (Primary Target Firms)

REASONS FOR DECISION

- [1] On 10 March 2021, the Competition Tribunal conditionally approved a large merger between Ultimo Properties (Pty) (“Ultimo”) Ltd and JD Consumer Electronics and Appliances (Pty) Ltd (“CEA”) (collectively the acquiring group)¹ and Part of the Rental Enterprises of Steinhoff Properties (Pty) Ltd (“Steinprop”) comprising 11 properties.
- [2] The Target Properties are all directly or indirectly owned by Steinhoff Africa Property Services (Pty) Ltd (“Steinhoff Africa”) which is ultimately owned by Steinhoff Investment Holdings N.V and comprise of offices and warehouses. For that reason, the Competition Commission (“Commission”) considered the transaction as one indivisible transaction since the rental properties to be acquired are owned and controlled by the Steinhoff Group.
- [3] Relevant to this transaction are the acquiring firms’ 16 properties located in the Western Cape.
- [4] Further relevant to the transaction are the target firms’ properties, namely: an undivided share of Copperzone in the Nelspruit Property in Mpumalanga; JD Group’s Jet Park Property in Gauteng, PE Property in Eastern Cape, Polokwane Property in Limpopo, Tzaneen Property in Limpopo and Vryburg Property in North West; Showboat’s Kokstad Property and Richards Bay Property in Kwa-Zulu Natal; Steinprop’s East Gate Property in Gauteng, Cliffdale Property in Kwa-Zulu Natal and Kuils River Property in Western Cape as well as Tanzanite’s right, title and interest in and to, and its obligations under the written lease agreement in respect of portion A of the Groblersdal Property (“Groblersdal lease agreement”) in Limpopo.²

² In terms of the Sale Agreements, Ultimo will acquire the Cliffdale and Kuils River properties (properties of Steinprop). CEA will acquire the Nelspruit, Eastgate, Jet Park, PE, Polokwane, Tzaneen, Vryburg, Kokstad and Richards Bay properties as well as the Groblersdal lease agreement.

- [5] The Commission identified horizontal overlaps in the merging parties' provision of rentable warehouses and rentable office space. The Commission found no geographic overlap in the rental of warehouses and office space respectively.
- [6] For the above reasons, we concluded that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any relevant market.
- [7] In its public interest consideration, the Commission noted that the Management Board of Steinhoff has decided to sell the entire property portfolio of Steinhoff Africa.
- [8] The Commission contacted the employee representative of the Target Properties and no concerns were raised by them.
- [9] The Acquiring Group's employees were represented by South African Commercial Catering and Allied Workers Union ("SACCAWU"), Southern African Clothing & Textile Workers' Union ("SACTWU") and Entertainment Catering Commercial Allied Workers Union of South Africa ("ECCAWUSA"). SACTWU and ECCAWUSA raised no concerns, while SACCAWU proposed certain employment conditions, which the Commission viewed as unrelated to the proposed merger. This is because the remedies identified by SACCAWU did not appear to address any merger specific concerns and there are no employees of the Acquiring Group who are likely to be affected by the proposed transaction.
- [10] The Commission noted that there are 9 employees who are likely to be affected in future when the properties of Steinhoff Africa are sold off. The Commission considered that such retrenchments would be merger specific. It suggested a 24-month moratorium on retrenchments.
- [11] The merging parties committed that, should it be necessary to retrench these nine employees, [REDACTED]
- [12] We concluded that the proposed transaction is unlikely to substantially prevent or lessen competition in any relevant market. We were of the view that the condition tendered by the merging parties and recommended by the Commission sufficiently addressed any potential retrenchment concern of the nine employees. The merger has no negative impact on the any other public interest.

[13] We therefore approved the merger subject to the attached conditions.
